

Capital Investment Companies Extends Investment Services to Native American Tribes

New Representative Charles Steiner brings 30+ years experience to Capital

RALEIGH, N.C. (August 4, 2010) – Capital Investment Companies, one of the largest independent financial services and brokerage firms in the Southeast, has expanded their capabilities once again with the addition of Charles E. “Chuck” Steiner, who has over 30 years experience providing excellent financial advice and counsel to Native American tribes around the country.

Mr. Steiner’s many accomplishments include setting up a host of employee benefit and retirement plans for several large employers in Florida and throughout the nation. Working with the United South Eastern Tribes (USET), Mr. Steiner consolidated all the Indian tribes’ employees from Maine to Florida, east of the Mississippi River, into a self-funded medical plan. Mr. Steiner developed an “Alternate Social Security Plan” for many Native American Tribes throughout the nation.

“We are fortunate that Chuck Steiner has affiliated with us and, in turn, his affiliation is further evidence that Capital has a business model that supports the needs of expert financial advisors,” said Richard K. Bryant, president of Capital Investment Companies. “We empower our representatives to take the utmost care of investors, which is our number-one priority.”

Based in Boynton Beach, Florida, Mr. Steiner developed a national capitation transplant program with 13 academic medical centers. Mr. Steiner consulted with the “Caricom Nations” in the Caribbean on their health care delivery system. He also implemented self-funded medical plans in 15 organizations in South Florida, most of them hospitals. In addition, he has testified in front of U.S. Senate committees about alternate Social Security plans on behalf of Native Americans, as well as appeared as an expert witness regarding fringe benefits.

Mr. Steiner holds a B.A. degree from Florida Atlantic University with additional work toward a Masters of Public Administration. He holds insurance licenses in Florida for life, health and variable annuities. He also holds Series 6 and 22 licenses.
